Transportation for Other Delegates

Courtesy shuttle services will operate between Kigali International Airport, official hotels and the Kigali Convention Centre from 28 August to 6 September 2026, covering the list of approved hotels to be circulated by the Joint Organizing Secretariat.

Hotel–Venue Shuttle Service (Transport To and From the Venue)

A dedicated shuttle service will operate on predetermined schedules between the Kigali Convention Centre and each approved hotel for the duration of the Summit, for delegates not provided with dedicated transport.

- Shuttles will be clearly marked with AFSF2026 branding and will be staffed by shuttle liaison officers.
- Pick-up points at each hotel and the corresponding schedule will be issued at accreditation and published in the AFSF2026 mobile application.
- Return shuttles from the venue will run at the close of each day's programme, with additional late service following evening functions (Gala Dinner, receptions).
- Transport logistics centres will be established at both the KCC and Kigali International Airport to coordinate shuttle operations and handle ad hoc requests.
- Delegates requiring wheelchair-accessible transport should notify their DLO or the transport logistics centre at least 48 hours in advance.

Arrival and Departure Ceremonies at the Venue (KCC)

- The Government of Rwanda will assign officials to welcome Heads of State/Government and other Heads of Delegation from the drop-off point and lead them to the VVIP holding room.
- Protocol officers will receive Ministers and other dignitaries through the VIP entrance and escort them to the VIP holding room.
- Arrival and departure of Heads of State and Government to and from the venue will observe the order of precedence established by the Joint Organizing Secretariat for the Summit/Government of Rwanda protocols.
- Accompanying delegation members are kindly advised not to follow or gather at the VIP entrance or lobby area.
- The photo ceremony will take place at a designated staircase/entrance at KCC; Heads of State/Government and Heads of Delegation will be arranged according to order of precedence.

HEALTH CARE PROTOCOLS

Port Health Information

Port health services in Rwanda covering disease surveillance, health screening at points of entry, and public health emergency response fall under the Rwanda Biomedical Centre (RBC), the country's central health implementation agency under the Ministry of Health.

Vaccination

Delegates are responsible for complying with travel health measures stipulated by their country of departure, destination and airline. Travelers arriving from yellow fever-endemic countries must hold a valid yellow fever vaccination certificate (vaccinated at least ten (10) days before travel). Rwanda is itself classified as a country with risk of yellow fever transmission; a valid certificate should be carried by all delegates. See Annex IV for the current list of affected countries; delegates should verify the latest list with RBC or their travel health provider before departure.

Notice on Enhanced Ebola Prevention Measures

There are currently no cases in Rwanda and no active cases in areas bordering Rwanda. While the risk of transmission to Rwanda is low, we remain vigilant and continue strengthening surveillance and preparedness for early detection and rapid response.

- All foreign nationals who have travelled to, or transited through, the DRC within the last thirty (30) days prior to their intended travel to Rwanda will be denied entry.
- Rwandan nationals and foreign residents with valid proof of residency in Rwanda will be permitted entry. However, those who have travelled to, or transited through, the DRC within the same thirty (30) day period will be subject to mandatory quarantine procedures in line with public health protocols.
- For more information please visit: <https://www.rbc.gov.rw/PHSEPR/about-ebola-2/>

Health teams will be positioned inside and/or outside conference rooms during sessions for rapid response to emergencies and will escort delegates requiring care to the on-site clinics. Any condition requiring referral or admission will be managed at the delegate's hospital of choice, at their own cost.

SECURITY AND SAFETY INFORMATION

General

- The Government of Rwanda will implement security measures at the airport, KCC, designated hotels, and parking areas.
- All persons accessing the conference venue will undergo security screening and checks.
- Appropriate traffic arrangements will be made to ensure smooth movement of delegates and dignitaries.
- Dedicated parking will be reserved for VVIPs, separate from general delegate parking.

Firearms Clearance

- The Government of Rwanda will facilitate clearance of firearms and communication equipment for visiting Heads of State and Government.
- All firearms must be declared at the airport/point of entry upon arrival and departure, with lists forwarded to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs at least 72 hours prior to arrival, capturing: name and rank of holder, passport number, type of firearm and ammunition, serial number, and quantity.
- Temporary firearm certificates will be issued to security details of VVIPs and VIPs on a case-by-case basis; certificates must be surrendered on exit after inspection.
- Rwandan security agencies will be in charge at the conference venue; armed security personnel will not access meeting rooms except as designated.
- A maximum of five side arms shall be allowed for delegations led by a Head of State/Government, and two for delegations led by Ministers, subject to final confirmation by MINAFFET.

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT RWANDA

General

Rwanda is located in the Great Lakes region of East-Central Africa. Its capital, Kigali, is known for its cleanliness, hills and rapidly modernizing skyline. The country is famed for its conservation record, notably the mountain gorillas of Volcanoes National Park, and has become one of Africa's leading conference and events destinations.

Languages

Kinyarwanda, English and French are official languages, alongside Kiswahili, which is also recognized. English is widely used in business and government.

Climate

Early September falls within Rwanda's dry-to-transitional season. Daytime highs are typically around 23°C (75–79°F), rarely exceeding 28°C (83°F), with mild overnight lows around 15°C (59°F).

Banking Services

Banking hours generally run from 08:00 to 17:00 on weekdays and 08:00 to 15:00 on Saturdays. ATMs accepting Visa, Mastercard and Cirrus are widely available, and Bureau de Change facilities operate throughout Kigali, including at the airport and major hotels.

Foreign Exchange

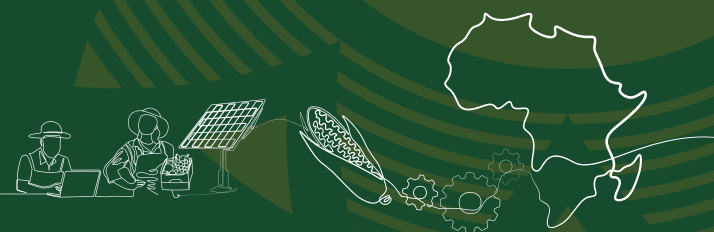

The currency of Rwanda is the Rwandan Franc (RWF). Foreign currencies can be exchanged at banks, forex bureaus, the airport and major hotels. Major credit cards and online payment platforms are accepted at most hotels, restaurants and shops in Kigali.

Time Zone

Rwanda operates on Central Africa Time (CAT), which is GMT+2 year-round.

Electricity Supply

The standard electrical current is 220–240V AC at 50Hz. Sockets are of Type C/E/J (rounded two-pin). Delegates are advised to carry a universal adaptor, though most hotels can provide one on request.

Restaurants

Kigali offers a wide variety of dining options, from traditional Rwandan cuisine to international restaurants. Tipping is voluntary and considered courteous.

Taxi Services

Uber does not currently work in Kigali. You will be able to find taxis at your hotel. Alternatively, you can book a ride on: Move, Greenride or a Yego Cab (both services have apps you can download on your phone).

Premier Transport Service will also have a booth at the venue and exhibition centre to cater for private transportation bookings.

Business and Shopping Hours

Public offices operate 09:00–17:00, and most businesses 08:00–18:00, Monday to Friday, with somewhat shorter hours on weekends. Some shopping malls operate extended or 24-hour hours.

Tourism — Places to Visit and Contacts

Delegations with time before or after the Summit programme may wish to explore the following, all within Kigali:
